I, MARGOTH PEREZ DE CHALAMPA, being duly sworn hereby depose and say:

1. I was born in Bolivia in 1976. I graduated from Universidad Catolica de Bolivia with a medical degree in 2001. I met Richard Chalampa, a United States citizen while attending the university in Bolivia. We were married in Bolivia in July 1997, and had a daughter born in 1998.

2. I entered the United States as a lawful permanent resident on July 13, 2002 with my then four year old daughter, a U.S. citizen. We currently reside in Queens.

3. On or about July 23, 2007, five years after I entered the U.S. as a lawful permanent resident, I filed an N-400 application for naturalization prior to the scheduled application fee increase. The Immigration Center at York College where I have been taking classes since 2003 helped prepare my application.

4. I received an I-797C, Notice of Action ("notice") dated September 11, 2007 from the USCIS confirming receipt of my application for naturalization.

5. I received a second notice from USCIS also dated September 11, 2007 scheduling a biometrics appointment on September 28, 2007 at the CIS Jackson Heights Application Support Center in Queens to take my fingerprints to have them cleared by the FBI. I went to the Jackson Heights Application Support Center on September 28, 2007 and was fingerprinted. See, Perez Exhibit "1".

6. Subsequent to the underlying complaint being filed on March 6, 2008, almost 8 months after I submitted my application, I received a notice from USCIS dated March 12, 2008 scheduling my interview on May 12th, 2008 at the Garden City CIS office. See, Perez Exhibit "2".

7. I understand that USCIS had announced that it would take approximately 16-18 months to process all naturalization applications, largely because of USCIS and FBI delays in completing name and background checks. I understand that there were a large number of applications submitted last year in response to citizenship drives, and from people like myself who filed before the application fees were nearly doubled.

8. I feel that these delays are very unfair, since I understood that it would take USCIS about 6 months to process applications for citizenship at the time I applied. I worry that these delays may prevent me and other applicants from being able to vote this fall.

9. I have been prejudiced by USCIS' delay in processing my naturalization application.

10. I want to vote in this fall's presidential elections and fully participate in the democratic process of the United States, my adopted country. I have been taking political science classes at York College and learning about the laws of the U.S.. I thought that by submitting my application for naturalization in July 2007 there would be more than sufficient time to become a U.S. citizen and register to vote in the 2008 presidential elections.

11. I currently work as a Health Coordinator for a Head Start pre-school program in East Harlem. I conduct nutrition workshops, and serve as a liaison to the parents, the majority of whom are Latino.

12. I want to apply for better paying health care positions in the government, which are only available to United States citizens. I want the stability and job opportunities that come with U.S. citizenship so that I can better support my family.
